

Question Number	Questions - Anticlockwise	Answer
1	Where is Pitt commemorated?
2	Monument to men who fell in Indian wars, erected by whom?
3	Bristol's answer to Harley St., how many Medicos at this one?
4	How far is "Harley Street" from the center of Bristol?
5	Decorative working water fountain Whats anachronistic about it?
6	House decorated with a Barley twist, what?
7	What is the Address?
8	Like a flash of lightning, to get to the portway, what?
9	Numbers 27, 29 and 34 West Mall have a common decorative feature, what is it? (Mind your feet)
10	Number 24 West Mall. What is Heavenly about this address?
11	The Assembly rooms first, then a government "insisted" passage to Australia. Who?
12	When part of the Assembly Rooms was a hotel, a famous person stayed there. Whom? (consider adjacent street names).
13	Macaulay, why was his name mentioned?
14	Caledonia Place. What are the stone blocks for? How many are there?
15	Not the Royal mail. But what?
16	A Priory, but with two Dolphins, where?
17	And two Sphinxes, where?
18	How many caryatids?
19	Ostrich feather, a White Horse and a Blue

Question Number	Questions - Anticlockwise	Answer
	Dragon. Where.
20	"Stick no Bills" What form are these edicts?
21	Where are they?

22	Royal York Crescent, what are the connections with Napoleon the Third?
23	Stone to my left, iron to my right, where?
24	Ditto, what? (Jim'll fix it)
25	Iron to my right, but made by who?
26	There is a famous grotto nearby, in the grounds of which house? (all that glitters is not ...+ House Maids affliction)
27	Churchyard walk, why the razed lawn?
28	Two barley twists. When viewed from the top, is the twist clockwise? (Yes or No)
29	Roman Road (but not usually a cul-de-sac) what is the name of this one?
30	Landsdown Place, why would the late Willie Hamilton MP. have been pleased to post his letters in this one?
31	Archway, Boyces avenue. What does this have in common with the Penny Black (1d)?
32	What do a Hotel, a Doctor, a Chemist, a High Commissioner, a Poet and an Admiral have in common?
33	Now return to the Pub, but the Dray's got there before you. How do you know?	